

Computer Technology Guide - Joel Barlow High School

Course Offerings in computing and related fields

- Computing skills play an increasingly important part in all our lives
- All students must earn at least 1 credit in Computer Technology to graduate
- The department recommends one semester in each of the major groups
- The courses with prerequisites are Computer Applications II, Advanced Video Production, CISCO 2, 3, 4, Image Editing 2, and Digital Photography
- Any course listed below will fulfill the computer literacy graduation requirement
- Any course listed below will provide the opportunity to meet 75% of the Technology Competency requirement including the Portfolio for the classes of 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2015

